

Julie Huckabone is thrilled to return to Bishop Smith Catholic High School in September as principal. After three years as vice-principal at Bishop Smith, she became the principal of St. Andrew's, Killaloe, in 2017 and then of St. Joseph's, Arnprior, in 2019. The opportunity to come back to Bishop is an exciting one, and she is looking forward to joining the Bishop family as we look towards the new school year.

Julie lives in Cobden with her husband and three teenaged children and is a parishioner at St. Michael's Parish in Douglas. She is a lifelong learner. She is passionate about inclusion, student success and seeking pathways for all, particularly through the trades and experiential learning.
